

Interview Questions for Gail Cawley Showalter

1. You've been working with single mothers since 2007 practically full time. Why? What led you in this direction?
2. How many single mothers are there in the U.S.?
3. Why do you think this figure has increased so much?
4. What do you find to be the greatest challenge single mothers face?
5. Are "Deadbeat Dads" the real problem?
6. You are also a Certified Professional Coach. How do you use this with single mothers? Or women in general?
7. What is your primary desire for the moms you coach?
8. You founded SMORE for Women. Tell us about that.
9. What do you suggest that moms who want to return to college do to make that happen?
10. What is your ultimate goal for the moms you work with?
11. Your book, Living Learning Loving, is very open. You make yourself vulnerable. How do you think your book will encourage readers?